

June 2019

World Environment Day

World Environment Day will be happening June 5. It was established in 1972 by the United Nations General Assembly and now it has grown massively, where it is celebrated in over 100 countries. Last year the theme was "Beat Plastic Pollution", this year it's "Beat Air Pollution".

How will you celebrate World Environment Day and help Beat Air Pollution?

You can check out their website for more details on events and the take the mask challenge. Worldenvironmentday.global

Clean Air Leaders Awards

Our very own Estela Gutierrez, a.k.a "Worm Lady", received a Clean Air Leaders award in education from the Monterey Bay Air Resources District. We are very happy to see our staff members recognized for how much they do for the community and environment.

Tourism Ruins The Environment

Do you have any plans to travel this summer? Before you go off exploring different places around the world, be sure to be aware and considerate of the local environment. There have been some popular tourism destinations that have been ruined because of tourism overcrowding. This insider article shows how tourism ruined these popular tourist destinations.
