

Happy Harvest!

November 2017

The Holiday Season is Upon Us!
Take Advantage of Upcoming Community Events & Services to Reduce Holiday Waste!

Thanksgiving Feast

Remember to reduce the amount of food waste this Holiday Season by creating delicious leftovers recipes, like soups or casseroles or try composting leftover fruits and vegetables! Sign up for our FREE composting workshops to learn how to turn your kitchen scraps into soil goodness! You can also donate unused food to those in need; The Good Samaritan Act of California allows for businesses, restaurants, and good faith donors to donate unused food to food banks, nonprofit organizations, or directly to individuals without liability, so that food doesn't end up in a landfill, but into the mouths of people in need this holiday season.

Are you a homeowner, installer or contractor with used carpet to dispose of? Good news! You can now drop off used carpet for recycling at the Sun Street Transfer Station, located at 139 Sun Street in Salinas. Carpet must be dry, free from debris, rolled and separated from the padding.

This service is offered in partnership with the non-profit Carpet America Recovery Effort, working to increase the amount of carpet that gets recycled in California.

It's No Straw November!

How to Recycle E-Waste this Black Friday

Are Black Friday deals persuading you to purchase a new TV, laptop, or cellphone? Remember to consider if you REALLY NEED that new gadget, and think about where your old electronics will end up. Also, keep in mind Salinas Valley Recycles has Three disposal and recycling facilities that are happy to accept your e-waste for FREE!

Do your part to combat litter and eliminate waste by politely saying "No straw, please" when ordering your beverage. Sponsored by the Gonzales Youth Council & the Gonzales Chamber of Commerce. To read more about the negative effects of straws on the environment click here!
